Gecko Studio Gallery news

15 Falls Rd, Fish Creek (the Gecko Studio Gallery property) is FOR SALE

3996 website - <https://www.inverloch3996.com/hotproperties/15-falls-road-fish-creek> for all the information you need.

After almost 13 years of Gecko, we have decided to put our beloved property on the market. Since renovating in 2017 to install the cafe into the mix, we have worked extra hard to ensure Gecko has remained vibrant and unique, and we now feel we are ready to let go of the reins to pursue our art and artisan careers on a more full-time basis. Whilst we will be sad to say goodbye to the property, we intend to keep our framing business operating from our home in Fish Creek East (otherwise known as Foster North)....along with new ventures yet to be realised.

Below is the wording scripted for the real estate advert....please feel free to share this around...

"Set in heart of Fish Creek this landmark building offers its new owners a myriad of opportunities. Described by Back Roads host Heather Ewart as "a whimsical town straight from a story book, home to children's book authors and illustrators, world renowned botanical artists, musicians and sculptors". 15 Falls Road is currently being run as a business, Gecko Studio Gallery, offering exhibitions, framing, art materials and a busy cafe catering to locals and the many tourists who pass through the town on their way to Wilsons's Promontory. The property is to be sold as a blank canvas to the new owners without the Gecko Studio Gallery business, leaving unlimited opportunities for the entrepreneurial spirit.

As well as the large gallery space with huge double frontage windows, a spacious and luxurious apartment with North facing deck is situated at the rear, along with gorgeous mature gardens with a curved path leading down to your very own huge art studio - complete with its own wood heater and two cavernous storage rooms.

Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the scope of what's on offer here."

• The Waifs

Saturday, November 23rd, 2019. Doors: 7 pm, Show 8pm Sold Out.

The Waifs will come on stage at 8pm and perform a 2 hour show.

• Hiss Golden Messenger

Saturday, January 25th, 2020. Doors: 7 pm, Show 8pm. Tickets $60
<https://youtu.be/nDGYV82IAFI>

Describing the Durham-based Hiss Golden Messenger is like trying to grasp a forgotten word: It's always on the tip of your tongue, but hard to speak. Songwriter and bandleader M.C. Taylor's music is at once familiar, yet impossible to categorize: Elements from the American songbook—the steady, churning acoustic guitar and mandolin, the gospel emotion, the eerie steel guitar tracings, the bobbing and weaving organ and electric piano—provide the bedrock for Taylor's existential ruminations about parenthood, joy, hope, and loneliness—our delicate, tightrope balance of dark and light—that offer fully engaged contemporary commentary on the present. And then there's an indescribable spirit and movement: Hiss Golden Messenger's music grooves. There's nothing else quite like it.

For over ten years, Taylor has spearheaded this prolific, perpetually evolving group. He's toured and recorded relentlessly, earning devotees along the roads, deep in festival pits, and across the seas, delivering earnest performances that morph from jammy freakout to private prayer in a matter of measures.

"The work that I do requires me to be in a certain emotional place," says Taylor. "My music depends first and foremost on being in a heightened emotional state and putting my vulnerability on display." This vulnerability is also central to Taylor's steadily growing fanbase, which continues to discover universal themes in his deeply personal work. The critical acclaim and attention for Hiss Golden Messenger—including features in The Atlantic and The New Yorker, glowing album and live reviews in Pitchfork, Rolling Stone, and Consequence of Sound, and barn-burning performances on Late Show with David Letterman and Late Night with Seth Meyers—affirm the emotional power of Taylor's work.

• Patty Griffin

Sunday, March 1, 2020. Doors: 7 pm, Show 8pm. Tickets $80 WATCH

"Patty Griffin is an absolute inspiration to every songwriter who's fortunate enough to come across her music." - Missy Higgins

"I would go anywhere, anytime to hear Patty Griffin sing her extraordinary songs." - Emmylou Harris

Over the course of two decades, the GRAMMY Award-winner— and seven-time nominee — has crafted nine classic studio albums and two live collections, a remarkable body of work that prompted the New York Times to hail her for "[writing] cameo-carved songs that create complete emotional portraits of specific people...(her) songs have independent lives that continue in your head when the music ends." Widely regarded among the best singer-songwriters of her era, this year's self-titled album, PATTY GRIFFIN collects songs written during her battle with cancer.

Chronicling love and death, heartache and joy, connection and detachment, Patty Griffin continues with her uncanny perception, and ever-increasing ingenuity. A starkly beautiful live show, the return of this pillar of Americana is not to be missed.

● Eilen Jewell

March 20, 2020 Tickets $65 <http://www.eilenjewell.com/video-2/>

Lyrebird are very pleased to announce Eilen Jewell and her band will be back at Meeniyon Town hall on Friday 20th March 2020 for a very special show in support of her latest album Gypsy.

The reigning Queen of the Minor Key, Jewell leads a tight quartet that blends influences of surf-noir, early blues, classic country, folk, and 1960s era rock 'n' roll. For well over a decade, they've toured relentlessly for legions of fans from Boston to Boise and Madrid to Melbourne, playing large festivals, theatres, rock clubs, and coffeehouses and have shared stages with the likes of Lucinda Williams, Loretta Lynn, Mavis Staples, Wanda Jackson, George Jones, Emmylou Harris, and Blind Boys of Alabama.

● Cedric Burnside

Saturday March 21, 2020 Tickets $50.00 https://youtu.be/J_5wtJPaG88

The Grammy-nominated 39-year-old still lives on several acres not far from the Holly Springs, Mississippi, home where he was raised by "Big Daddy," his grandfather, the late singer/songwriter/guitarist R.L. Burnside whom Cedric famously played with, just as his own father, drummer Calvin Jackson, did. Cedric was literally born to the blues, more specifically, the "rhythmically unorthodox" Hill country variant which emerged from Mississippi, where he grew up surrounded (and influenced) by Junior Kimbrough, Jessie May Hemphill and Otha Turner, as well as delta musicians T-Model Ford and Paul "Wine" Jones.

Seeker Lover Keeper

Friday 27th March, 2020 Tickets $52

<https://youtu.be/pnFMqYqOeF4>

Seeker Lover Keeper is the collaborative project of three of Australia's most beloved musicians; Sarah Blasko, Holly Throsby and Sally Seltmann. The band originated, as many things do, from a conversation at a pub. In 2007, Sarah and Holly went to see Sally play a show in Sydney, and the three ended up drinking and talking well into the night. At some point during the night a plan arose: wouldn't it be fun to tour together sometime? Sally suggested they should start a band. Without hesitation, Sarah and Holly said yes.

After releasing their now-iconic and much-loved self-titled debut album in 2011 Seeker Lover Keeper undertook multiple tours and then went their separate ways. Since then Sarah released three records, composed for film and television, and had a son; Holly wrote two novels, released an album, and had a daughter; and Sally relocated with her family to LA for a time, released an album, wrote a novel, and composed for television.

It wasn't until recently that they decided to come together again, 12 years after they first met and 8 years since they last played together. The album Wild Seeds with the extraordinary singles Superstar, Wild Seeds and Let it Out was released in 2019 to unanimous critical acclaim, it's a dazzling display of virtuosic song-writing, harmony and melody. Fans around the country flocked to their recent sold-out Australian tour. The next chapter in the musical lives of these extraordinary artists has only just begun.

- The War & Treaty

Thursday April 16, 2020 Tickets $65 <https://youtu.be/PfkPgfuVAc>

As The War and Treaty, Michael and Tanya Trotter serve up healing and pain robbing with freewheeling joy on their new full-length album, Healing Tide. Funky bass lines, keys, lap steel, acoustic strings, and stripped-down percussion create a swampy Southern soul bed for the couple's transcendent vocals. A tour-de-force produced by Buddy Miller, the collection swaggers with confidence only gained by artists who are wholly, proudly, themselves.

Michael is a wounded warrior who found his voice while serving in Iraq, when he was pulled from the frontlines to write songs for the fallen. Tanya is a lifelong artist, drawn to singing's power to take another's pain away. "You have to have a deep place of love within yourself to be vulnerable," Tanya says. "With The War and Treaty, we allow people to see two people that are not perfect. We get on stage. We sweat. We're overweight. We yell. We get ugly, we scream! My hair comes loose. We're vulnerable--naked--in front of people, and it's a chain reaction. It allows them to be vulnerable, too." The War and Treaty's music and stories bring tears and goosebumps, but ultimately, more is at work. "I want people to feel like we care," Michael says. "When you think about artists, you don't think about that." He pauses and grins broadly. "But that's the way I want the world to feel about The War and Treaty."
